Marketplace

So you've created that awesome module or add-on for Blesta however you want to show it on our Marketplace? Awesome let's get started.

Firstly we need a development license, if you don't have one yet please contact our team and we'll issue you one to your account. The development license must be for non-production use.

Getting started

As above we need to log into the marketplace with your account.blesta.com username and password, you will be greeted with this page:

Extension Management

⌂ Home	Dashboard
👤 Dashboard	Hello, Michael Dance!
⚡ My Extensions	Welcome to The Marketplace, an extension directory for Blesta.
⏎ Logout	Profile Information

Your listings in The Marketplace contain an Author Name which links to your Website. You may update that information here. Changes are immediate and affect all listings. To include a link to a page for a particular extension, edit the listing instead.
